

GARY ETTER RETIRES

Join us in sending off Gary Etter with a drop-in celebration at the Craighead County Sheriff's Office Training Room on Wednesday, September 5, 2018 from 2:00 to 4:00.

Retired

rə'ti(ə)rd

adjective

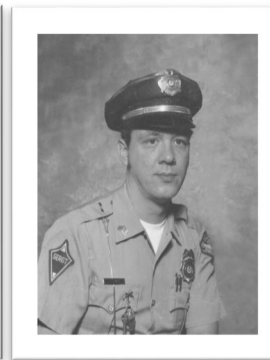

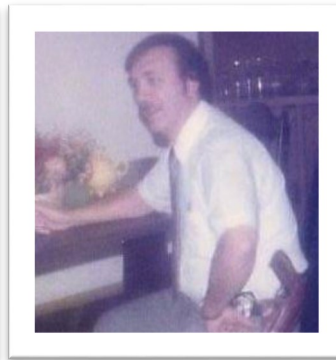

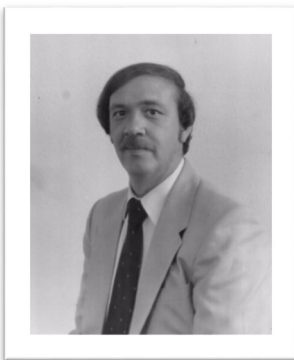

-Having left one's job and ceased to work.

After fifty years, Gary is finally retired!

-To be once again tired.
I walked to the kitchen after my post-breakfast nap and I am now retired.

Etter began his career with the US Air Force, transitioned into law enforcement by joining the Jonesboro Police Department in 1971. He then came to Craighead County Sheriff's Office in 1997, and he's hanging up his hat after serving his community and country for 50 years.

Congratulations, Gary. You've earned it.

GARY ETTER

Clockwise from top left:

Airforce, Airforce, Jonesboro PD-Patrolman, Jonesboro PD-Sergeant, JPD-CID, CCSO-CID